Suffrage Plank Iscluded.

After a three hour session today, members of the Democratic convention, and committee on resolutions, which is strafting the platform, announced that a tentalive draft prohably would be completed late today, after consideration by the entire committee. Representative Rainey of Illinois, a member of the sub-committee, said the tentalive draft would contain a woman suffrage plank, at least as strong as that contained in the Republican platform, and expressing the belief of the Democratic party that women should be enfranchised.

Fight Berelops.

When the sub-committee took up the president's suggestion for a plank consistential or a granizations of foreign boro citizens for attempts to influence international and domestic policies, a fight developed that threatened to lengthen its sessions. Some members were said

Hallroads Would Be Affected.

If the order has been secured, all railroads doing business in the state are affected. At a conference of traffic agents and atterneys held last Saturday in Los Angeles it was decided not to accept "personal use" stipments for Arizona and to fight any oftempts to obtain courf orders compelling the railroads to handle that husiness. How this agreement will be affected by the Kansas City case does not appear.

Attorney general Jones could not say what action he would take if a carload of liquor suddenly arrived within the State.

Free Lecture On Yosemite Park

Miss Mildred Leo Clemens, who is to lecture tonight at 8 oclock under the anspices of the Equal Franchise league on the subject of Yosemite untional park, will deliver the lec-ture in Cleveland square instead of the chumber of commerce as origin-ally planned.

Mrs. S. J. Pennell, president of the Equal Franchies league, made ar-rangements today with city officials to have the lecture in the park in order to accommodate more people and also because it will be more pleasant for the autience than in a building. The lecture will be illus-trated with several reels of moving pictures and a number of still pic-tures of the famous natural park and its many beauties, including its mountain ranges and glaciers.
